Convertible Notes Issuance

The Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes mature on November 15, 2025, unless extended, and are convertible into shares of Class A Common Stock (such shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes, the “Note Underlying Shares”). On the Maturity Date, the Company will pay the Subsequent Financing Investors, along with the holders of all of the Existing Issued Convertible Notes (hereinafter defined) (the Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes and the Existing Issued Convertible Notes collectively referred to as the “Convertible Notes”), an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the then-outstanding Stated Principal Amount (as defined in the Convertible Notes) of the Convertible Notes, multiplied by (ii) the then applicable Minimum Return (as defined in the Convertible Notes) amount in effect at such time, plus accrued and uncapitalized interest on the Convertible Notes (such amount, the “Minimum Return Maturity Amount”); provided that, if the Maturity Date has been extended, the Company will pay holders of Convertible Notes an amount in cash equal to the greater of (x) the Minimum Return Maturity Amount and (y) the then-outstanding principal amount plus any accrued and uncapitalized interest on the Convertible Notes. In the event that any prepayment or redemption of the Convertible Notes is made in full prior to the Maturity Date (or is deemed to have occurred in the case of an Event of Default Acceleration Event (as defined in the Convertible Notes)), the Company will pay in full all outstanding obligations under the Convertible Notes, which will include the payment, if applicable, of any Minimum Return amount, which ranges from 150% to 175% of the outstanding Stated Principal Amount (as defined in the Convertible Notes) of the Convertible Notes depending on the timing of the prepayment or redemption event, as applicable.

The terms related to interest, security, payments, conversion (including the conversion rate), rights of the Subsequent Financing Investors upon a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes) and affirmative and negative covenants are the same as described under the heading “Convertible Notes Issuance” in the November 8-K. The Subsequent Financing Investors have agreed that the transactions currently contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including any filings required by the Subsequent Financing Investors as a result of the Subsequent Financings, or any other person or persons with the SEC in connection with the Merger Agreement will not constitute a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Convertible Notes).

The Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes were not issued pursuant to an indenture. Unless the Company obtains the Requisite Stockholder Approvals (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), the Company will be prohibited from issuing any shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of the Subsequently Purchased Convertible Notes if the issuance of such shares of Class A Common Stock, together with shares issued upon the conversion of any other Convertible Notes and exercise of any Warrants (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), would exceed 19.99% of the Company’s outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or otherwise exceed the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock which the Company may issue without breaching the Company’s obligations under the Nasdaq listing rules.

Warrant Issuance

The Subsequently Purchased Warrants are exercisable at an exercise price of $0.808 per share of Class A Common Stock, subject to certain adjustments and expire on days between June 28, 2029 and July 3, 2029 (such shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Subsequently Purchased Warrants, the “Warrant Underlying Shares”, and together with the Note Underlying Shares, collectively, the “Underlying Shares”). The exercise price of the Subsequently Purchased Warrants, and the number of shares of Class A Common Stock potentially issuable upon exercise of the Subsequently Purchased Warrants, will be adjusted proportionately if the Company subdivides its shares of Class A common stock into a greater number of shares or combines its shares of common stock into a smaller number of shares.

In the event of a Fundamental Transaction (as defined in the Subsequently Purchased Warrants) that is (i) an all cash transaction, (ii) a “Rule 13e-3 transaction” as defined in Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or (iii) a Fundamental Transaction involving a person or entity not traded on a national securities exchange, the Company will be required, at the option of the holder of the Subsequently Purchased Warrant, to (x) purchase such holder’s Subsequently Purchased Warrant by paying to such holder an amount of cash equal to the Black-Scholes Value (as defined in the Subsequently Purchased Warrants) of the remaining unexercised portion of such Subsequently Purchased Warrant on the date of the consummation of such Fundamental Transaction or (y) exchange the Subsequently Purchased Warrant for a security of the Successor Entity (as defined in the Subsequently Purchased Warrants) evidenced by a written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to the Subsequently Purchased Warrants, including, without limitation, which is exercisable for a corresponding number of shares of capital stock equivalent to the shares of Class A Common Stock acquirable and receivable upon exercise of the Subsequently Purchased Warrant prior to such Fundamental Transaction, and with an exercise price which applies the exercise price under the Subsequently Purchased Warrant to such shares of capital stock (but taking into account the relative value of the shares of Class A Common Stock pursuant to such Fundamental Transaction and the value of such shares of capital stock, such adjustments to the number of shares of capital stock and such exercise price being for the purpose of protecting the economic value of the Subsequently Purchased Warrant immediately prior to the consummation of such Fundamental Transaction). Mr. Wynn and ACME Fund II have each agreed that the transactions currently contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including any filings required by Mr. Wynn or ACME Fund II or any other person or persons with the SEC in connection with the Merger Agreement will not constitute a Fundamental Transaction (as defined in the Subsequently Purchased Warrants).

Unless the Company obtains the Requisite Stockholder Approvals, the Company will be prohibited from issuing any shares of Class A Common Stock upon exercise of the Subsequently Purchased Warrants if the issuance of such shares of Class A Common Stock, together with shares issued upon the exercise of any other Warrants or the conversion of any Convertible Notes, would exceed 19.99% of the Company’s outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock or otherwise exceed the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock which the Company may issue without breaching the Company’s obligations under the Nasdaq listing rules.

The Subsequent Financings are connected to the Company’s announcements in its November 8-K, its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on January 25, 2024 (the “January 8-K”), its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on March 1, 2024 (the “First March 8-K”), its Second March 8-K, its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on March 21, 2024 (the “Third March 8-K”), its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on April 26, 2024 (the “April 8-K”) and its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on May 17, 2024 (the “May 8-K”), of a series of closings of previous financing transactions (the “Prior Financings”) with JMCM Holdings LLC (“JMCM”), MH Orbit LLC (“MH Orbit”), ACME Fund II, the Kemp Trust, Dr. London, RBH Ventures Astra SPV, LLC (“RBH”), ERAS Capital, LLC (“ERAS”), Ulrich Gall (“Gall”) and Astera Institute (“Astera” and collectively with JMCM, MH Orbit, ACME Fund II, the Kemp Trust, Dr. London, RBH, ERAS and Gall, the “Initial Investors” and collectively with Mr. Wynn, the “Investors”), pursuant to which the Company issued to the Initial Investors senior secured convertible notes (the “Existing Issued Convertible Notes”) substantially in the form of Senior Secured Convertible Note due 2025 filed as Exhibit 4.1 to the June 8-K, and warrants in accordance with the form of the Common Stock Purchase Warrant filed as Exhibit 4.2 to the November 8-K (the “Existing Issued Warrants”) and together with the Subsequently Purchased Warrants, collectively, the “Warrants”).
